M. D. Reynolds says:

This is to certify that I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism since 1894. Contracted the disease while working with a snow plow on the railroad. For several years I have been obliged to use crutches a great part of the time. Having used three boxes of the Meritol Rheumatism Powders, I have thrown away the crutches and am now almost fully recovered. It certainly has done wonders for me and I heartily recommend it. M. D. Reynolds. F. J. Brennan, Exclusive Agents.

MAYOR HELPS FRIENDLESS BOY

Mayor Rodgers has a kind spot in his heart. The last of the week a runaway boy from an Iowa town drifted into Alliance. He was without funds and without friends. The mayor took the boy home, gave him meals and a place to sleep until money was received from the boy's parents. He left for home, a sadder and wiser boy.

"A year ago last winter I had an attack of biliousness followed by biliousness and constipation. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets highly recommended, I bought a bottle of them and they helped me right away." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

A TRIBUTE TO AN OLD TIMER

History of "Doc" Middleton More Interesting than That of Buffalo Bill, Says Paper

From Chadron Chronicle, Jan. 2:

"Doc" Middleton, well known to every citizen of the northwest and especially of Chadron where he had been known for many years as a picturesque frontier character since the early days, died at Douglas, Wyoming, last Saturday.

"Doc" was a very active man for one of his age considering the hardships he had endured and the life he had led in years past. His last visit to Chadron, if we recollect just right, was during the Dawes county fair of last year when he looked as robust and healthy as he had in past years. Although he had made his home for some years past in Ardmore, S. Dak., for the past year he had resided at Orin Junction, and it was while on a trip to that place he was taken sick. A history of "Doc" Middleton's past life could be written that would surpass that of "Buffalo Bill" or a few of the plainmen who have received a great deal more newspaper advertising than he.

"Doc" was at one time a terror to the settlers of northwestern Nebraska, and during those early days he had a ranch on the Niobrara river, which was used as a rendezvous for many of the famous outlaws of those days, and it is said that many of their expeditions were planned at his place. At one time there was a big reward offered for his capture and it was only thru the shrewdest work on the part of detectives that he was ever captured. After his capture and serving a short term at Lincoln, he returned to the western part of the state, was married and raised a family of children, and had since been considered a good, law-abiding citizen and one that will be greatly missed, as he was a very conspicuous character, big hearted and ever ready to help a friend or any one in distress.

ANGORA MAN STARTS SOUTH

Prominent Morrill County Ranchman Who Has Real Estate Interests in South Texas

S. C. Yeager of Angora, one of Morrill county's prosperous ranchmen, was transacting business in Alliance Monday preparatory to starting to southern Texas where he has real estate interests. He left on 42 Monday for Kansas City, expecting to stop there about twelve hours, then on to the south. He has some eighty odd acres adjoining the town of Genoa, twelve miles south of Houston, Texas, and is enthusiastic over that country because of the splendid natural conditions of climate and soil and the commercial advantages of that section.

Houston, although forty miles from the gulf, will soon be connected with it by an ocean steamship channel and have a deep water harbor, with the prospect of which it has doubled in population in about three years and is making great headway toward becoming the "New York of the South."

Mr. Yeager intends to remain in the south until spring and orders The Herald sent to him so that he can keep posted on northwestern Nebraska affairs while away.

France proposes to tax every income. But Boni should worry.

Information Regarding Leave of Absence

NOTE.—The first proviso to Sec. 2291, R. S., as amended by the act of June 6, 1912 (37 Stat., 123), is as follows:

"Provided, That upon filing in the local land office notice of the beginning of such absence, the entryman shall be entitled to a continuous leave of absence from the land for a period not exceeding five months in each year after establishing residence, and upon the termination of such absence the entryman shall file a notice of such termination in the local land office, but in case of commutation the fourteen months' actual residence as now required by law must be shown. * * *"

The only entrymen who are entitled to the benefits of the above are those whose entries were made of record on or subsequent to June 6, 1912, and those whose entries were made prior to that date but who intend to submit final proof under the law as amended by the act of that date.

Extract from the regulations issued by the Department February 13, 1913 (Circular No. 208):

(11) After the establishment of residence the entryman is permitted to be absent from the land for one continuous period of not more than five months in each year following, provided that upon absenting himself for such period he has filed in the local land office notice of the beginning of such intended absence. He must also file notice with the local land office upon his return to the land following such period of absence.

(12) In according such extended periods of absence the Congress has dealt liberally with the homestead entryman, and bona fide continuous residence during the remaining portions of the three-year period must be clearly shown.

(13) A second period of absence immediately following the first period, even though the two periods occur in different years, reckoned from the date of the establishment of actual residence, will not be recognized, as it was never contemplated that an absence was permissible in excess of six months in view of the specific provisions for contest provided for in section 2197 of the Revised Statutes. There should be at least some substantial period of actual continuous residence upon the land separating the periods of absence accorded under the statute. Only those protracted absences with respect to which notice has been given as required by the statute will be respected either in case of contest or on final proof. This law does not repeal or modify the acts of March 2, 1889 (25 Stat., 854), June 26, 1910 (36 Stat., 864), and April 30, 1912 (37 Stat., 105).

SOME INFORMATION FOR HOMESTEADERS

Regulations of the Department Relating to Leave of Absence from Their Claims

Before the blanks approved by the secretary of the interior for leave of absence had been issued, The Herald printed a quantity of blanks for that purpose, conforming to the regulations of the department. These were used by homesteaders for a while, but since blanks have been issued by the department for that purpose, the officials of the land office prefer that they be used in order that all notices of absence and return be uniform in size and worded the same. Accordingly we are now printing a supply of blanks which are a reproduction in size and wording of those supplied by the department. These will be furnished free of charge to Herald subscribers who apply at the office or request them by mail. Address, The Alliance Herald, or

PLEASED WITH NEW LOCATION

Proprietor of City Market Finds Former Bee Hive Store Building Convenient

It has not been many years since people in Alliance said that the northeast corner of Box Butte avenue and Fourth street was "hoo-dooed". The opinion was based on the financial reverses that had come to some who had engaged in business on that corner. But if the hoo-doo ever made that place his headquarters, he must have taken his departure, as it has been demonstrated that it is a good place for business. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kewer built up such an extensive business there as to make it necessary for them to secure larger quarters.

W. R. Drake, who has moved the City meat market into the place from across the street, is very much pleased with the location and the room. While the location cannot be said to be better than the one at the northwest corner of the two streets, the room he finds to be more convenient for his purpose and can be arranged to handle his large business to better advantage than in the old building.

HIER MAKES JANUARY CALL

Henry Hier of Antioch was in Alliance yesterday. He comes to this city on business often and occasionally favors The Herald office with a call, but there is one regular visit here that he never fails to make. Every year about the first of January he calls and sets himself and his brother, E. A. Hier of Bishop Hill, Illinois, a year ahead on subscription.

A novelization of a most successful play by the most successful actor-playwright of the United States GEORGE M. COHAN

When a wealthy relative leaves a handsome fortune to young Jones he immediately responds to the call of "Broadway." Before long he's the most celebrated spender in the metropolis of spendthrifts. Every chorus girl and bartender, every taxi-cabman and policeman on the streets knows him and calls him by his nickname. He out-broadways Broadway. Then suddenly he finds himself "broke." Marriage with a maiden lady of many summers promises a solution not at all to his liking; then he meets THE girl and—

But you want to read the whole story—it's all very human and full of lots of good, roaring laughs. You'll not regret reading our coming serial—BROADWAY JONES.
